STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA
SECRETARY OF STATE

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
FOR A STATUTORY CLOSE CORPORATION

1. The name of the proposed corporation is Hilton Head Limousine Company, Inc.
2. This corporation is a Statutory Close Corporation formed pursuant to Chapter 18 of Title 33 of the 1976 South Carolina Code, as amended.
3. The initial Registered Office of the corporation is 374 Spanish Wells Road, Hilton Head Island, Beaufort County, South Carolina 29926 and the Registered Agent at such address is Timothy P. Griffin.
4. The corporation is authorized to issue a single class of shares, the total number of shares authorized is 100,000.
5. The existence of the corporation shall begin as of the filing date with the Secretary of State.
6. Unless specified otherwise below, the transfer of shares of stock of the corporation is subject to the restrictions set out in §§ 33-18-110 thru 33-18-130 of the 1976 South Carolina Code. Specify any variations in the statutory format in §§ 33-18-110 thru 33-18-130:

The purchase price for the shares of stock offered for sale shall be the greater of an amount equal to the cash amount offered by an eligible third person under Section 33-18-120 or the Current Fair Value of each share of stock as determined within sixty (60) days following the end of each fiscal year by unanimous agreement of the Shareholders. If Shareholders fail to make such redetermination of value for a particular year, the last previously stipulated value shall control, except that if the shareholders fail to make such a redetermination of value within twenty-four (24) months of the last valuation, then the value shall be agreed upon by the selling Shareholder or his legal representative on the one hand; the remaining Shareholders on behalf of the Corporation on the other. If no unanimous agreement on value is forthcoming within thirty (30) days of a request therefor by a selling Shareholder or his legal representative, then the valuation shall be established by arbitration with the selling shareholder, or his legal representative, selecting one arbitrator and the remaining Shareholder, or his legal representative, selecting one arbitrator. If the two arbitrators cannot agree upon the value, then the two arbitrators shall name a third arbitrator and the decision of a majority shall be binding upon all parties.

7. The corporation shall have a board of directors (See § 33-18-210 of the 1976 Code).
8. This corporation elects to have the provisions of §§ 33-18-140 thru 33-18-170 of the 1976 Code, which give the estate of a deceased shareholder the right to compel the corporation to purchase the deceased shareholder's shares, apply. Specify any variations in the statutory format in §§ 33-18-140 thru 33-18-170:

Upon the death of any Shareholder, the estate of the decedent through its executor or administrator may require the Corporation to purchase all of the decedent's shares in the Corporation now owned or hereafter acquired. The purchase price to be paid for the interest of the decedent shall be the Current Fair Value of the shares as determined in accordance with Article 6, as amended. If the Shareholders and the Corporation fail to make a redetermination of value for a particular year, the last previously stipulated value shall control, except that if the Shareholders and the Corporation have not so redetermined the value within the twenty-four (24) months immediately preceding the death of a Shareholder, then the value of a Shareholder's interest shall be agreed upon by the representative of the deceased Shareholder and the Corporation through its remaining Shareholders. If they do not agree upon a valuation within one hundred twenty (120) days after the death of a Shareholder, the value of the deceased Shareholder's interest shall be determined by arbitration as follows:

(a) The Corporation for the remaining Shareholders and the representative of the estate of the deceased Shareholder will each name an arbitrator; if the two arbitrators cannot agree upon the value within sixty (60) days, they shall appoint a third arbitrator, and the decision of the majority shall be binding upon all parties. In determining value by arbitration, life insurance proceeds shall not be taken into account.

(b) The Corporation may fund the cost of the purchase price of the stock through life insurance and may pay premiums on said insurance policies in accordance with this arrangement. In the event that life insurance is so procured, the purchase price of the deceased Shareholder's stock shall be paid for from the proceeds of the life insurance. In the event no life insurance is purchased or if the purchase price of the deceased Shareholder's stock exceeds the proceeds of the life insurance, the balance of the purchase price shall be paid in eight (8) consecutive quarterly payments beginning three (3) months after the date of the Shareholder's death. Such unpaid balance of the purchase price shall be evidenced by a series of negotiable promissory notes executed by the Corporation to the order of the estate of the deceased Shareholder with interest at the then current Prime Interest Rate. Such notes shall provide for the acceleration of the due date of all unpaid notes in the series upon the default in the payment of any one note or interest thereon and shall provide that upon the default of any payment or interest or principal, all notes shall become due and payable immediately and shall give the Corporation the option of prepayment in whole or in part at any time.

9. The optional provisions which the corporation elects to include in the articles of incorporation are as follows: see § 33-2-102 and the applicable comments thereto; and §§ 33-18-330, 33-2-105 and 33-2-221 of the 1976 South Carolina Code):

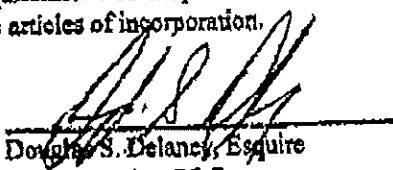

The provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation may be modified by a written agreement entered into by the Shareholders subsequent to the date of these Articles of Incorporation and may also include provisions relative to the management of the Corporation and the rights, duties and obligations of the Shareholders.

10. The name and address and signature of each incorporator is as follows:
